

A great new attraction is now available in Hobart, Tasmania, particularly suited to Senior Australian coach groups, special interest groups, or Travel Clubs:

HELL'S BELLES!

Hookers, convicts and other rascals ...

Hobart's Comedy Theatre Show

A TERRIFIC ENTERTAINMENT!

At the Whale Fishery Tavern, in the 1820's, all hell is let loose when certain people get together....

...the Rev. Bobby Knopwood & ex-convict Maria Lord, just two of the many great characters in this rollicking comedy

Treat your guests to an evening of great fun, right in the dining room of their hotel/motel*. Great convenience, no extra coaching costs, smooth and seamless delivery of the performance between the courses of the meal service, and your customers will simply love this hilarious theatre restaurant show.

The gags will have them in gales of laughter, the music and sound effects will bring the Convict Days alive, and the costumes are genuine designs of the period. And along with all the merriment, the insight afforded by "Hell's Belles" into the history of Early Hobart is accurate and carefully researched. A delightful history experience with a comic twist!

Don't miss this opportunity to offer your guests the best evening of their stay in Hobart. This proven entertainment fits excellently with the 'history & heritage' image of Tasmania, and is especially designed to meet the needs of coach groups in particular. Contact us direct for more details:
