

'Lady Jane Entertains'

Learn more about one of Tasmania's most intriguing historical characters, Lady Jane Franklin, in this entertaining yet authentic 40-minute dramatic recreation of her life.

Was she really a bluestocking who ran the government? Did she really abandon the Aboriginal girl, Mathinna, whom she had taken into her family?

"Lady Jane Entertains" is available for clubs, groups, incl. rural associations, and schools, and can be presented in any meeting rooms, community halls, or schools. It goes well with morning or afternoon tea, or for an evening entertainment. $12 pp (special rates for schools available – please inquire)

For bookings: 6278 3338 or hobarthistorictours@netspace.net.au

We can arrange a morning/afternoon tea venue for you, if required.

HOBART HISTORIC TOURS

27 Carr St, NORTH HOBART, Tasmania, Australia.

Presenting Tasmania's history in tours, shows, and talks since 2003

*"...a most enigmatic lady, brought brilliantly to life in this delightful presentation.
Our group really enjoyed the performance."
Kay Chambers, Travel Marvel tour director*